Liverpool Legends Impressive Hit

The Sullivan Performing Arts Theater saw crowds well over 400 Saturday night as the Liverpool Legends and the Passed Masters, Beatles tribute band, performed to the delight of all in attendance. Many audience members were stunned by the band's similar actions, sounds and overall performance as compared to the legendary band.

Working On New Memorial

St. Anthony Catholic Church is constructing a new memorial near the front entrance to the parish school. Pictured is Josh Blanton working on a concrete cross that was beginning to take shape Friday afternoon. The memorial will feature flagpoles along with memorial bricks, which area residents may purchase.
